Thank you for reading this book. Study abroad in 2016 and have a Happy New Year 2016 in a foreign country. Study in the USA, France, Germany, Canada, Mexico, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Hong Kong, Denmark, Netherlands, Italy, Switzerland, or Cuba. Make a New Year's Resolution 2016 to study abroad! Please take your time to understand each point step-by-step. This book prepares you for the challenges of studying abroad and can help you to build a stronger foundation of success during your educational journey. Go abroad and study. Reach your goals with confidence. You are reading this because you feel the need for self-improvement. This is the first step. Next, you need action. Each action will bring you closer to your goals. Finally, discover your life purpose each day. Each day you search, will bring you closer and closer until you find it. Embrace it with passion and clarity. The purpose is not to make the perfect book but to be inspired by the content bring out the best results in each student who reads it. Studying abroad is a rewarding experience and being prepared will give you an incentive to make the best effort possible. Building confidence and a foundation in the process are the first steps. Confidence and foundation can make studying abroad beneficial. Every step of the way is challenging for students studying abroad. This lifetime experience studying abroad can lead to success of employment, friendship, English proficiency, networking, happiness, and love. Foreign students can be optimistic with high expectations while build for their future. Safety, security, planning, goals, preparation and monitoring your progress will help to make your stay in a foreign country beneficial. This book will help international students to understand the importance of building confidence abroad and to be serious about their education. Building confidence is simple in form and easy to understand. Each chapter in this guidebook shows how to build confidence. You will gain a new perspective on life, see new ways to improve it and learn to be confident. Those who seek higher knowledge and self-improvement will be rewarded in the future with great satisfaction. International students should build their confidence while living abroad. They should take every opportunity available to build their confidence. I've met many international students with zero confidence. They had no goals and were not serious about their education. So, I felt I needed to reach out to those students with this book and help them build their confidence. Foreign students with confidence have an advantage over foreign students without confidence.
