An angel in black invokes justice. . .

In Southern California, anything can, and does happen. A beautiful biker chick cuts off Charlie Vernon, a successful lawyer from Boston. At the courthouse, she has the audacity to park in the space reserved for him. He gets hot under the collar but his powerful body reacts to the sight of her luscious backside. Life is about to become more complicated than he expected. The angel in black can't be bothered with him, but that small fact is about to quickly change. Will he be able to hide his tumultuous feelings from her or will he turn away?

Hiding her true identity, Roxanne Abernathy vows she doesn't do men in expensive, silk suits who are richer than sin. Charlie Vernon is cool, good-looking and wealthy--a bad, bad combination in her mind. However, she has a major problem. A madman intent on killing her is on the loose. Unless she takes the law into her own hands, Charlie is the only man who can help her. Death is lurking in every corner . . .
