Agean Liberty: What's a Grecian urn" (The Liberty Series) (Volume 2) Mr George W. Palmer
The admiral thought it was a good idea when Seaman Wilson had proposed it. Take sailors from one ship and place them on another. That way good ideas and innovative methods from one command would be spread to the others. Where was the down side in that? In theory it was great, who knew though, what part serendipity might play in it? The second in the "Liberty Series", this tale reacquaints the reader with Seaman Sam Wilson, her hometown friends and her shipmates. Who knows hat fun they'll have in the Aegean?
