When my business closed, I was evicted from my urban luxury apartment, and my car was untagged due to several years of overdue taxes – I had to move in with my mom at age 42. My baggage when I arrived was 6 totes of stuff, 2 house cats, and my youngest son, who was employed but now homeless too. The Losses were traumatic and difficult but they completely removed me from the conventions people think are required for a good life making it possible for me to be reborn from the ashes into the person, and into the life, I had been asking for. This is the story of my journey through the darkness and back.
