"A spellbinding witch cozy mystery that is filled with magical moments"

"Meg Walton is my new favorite sleuth. Between Meg's witty one-liners, plenty of tasty donut references, and a sassy talking cat character, I can't get enough of this series"

Just when it seems like Meg Walton can get back to business as usual running the family's donut shop, another murder occurs in the once-sleepy town of Enchanted Bay.

This time, a double-crossing carpet salesman turned theater owner is the victim. As a witch, Meg has unique abilities to investigate the case, but she'd prefer to leave the sleuthing to the cops.

All that changes when the police suspect one of Meg's friends as the possible killer. Meg knows she can't stand idly by. In order to prove her friend's innocence, she decides to find the real killer herself. Can she crack this case and save her friend without the town finding out her secret that she's a witch?
