"Temporary Pain-Permanent Love" chronicles the experiences of a woman's recovery from a traumatic divorce. In the wake of her worst nightmare, she makes a desperate attempt to put her life back together. Internally, she was broken, torn and ripped apart all while learning to re-establish the love for herself and her children. Raped of her marital future and finances the author takes readers down memory lane; and discovers the laws of attraction post learning to forgive the man who hurt her most. Overcoming obstacles and weighted options, her circumstance gradually evolves into a life of fulfillment and orgasmic joy! Readers will follow her along the journey to determine if she: re-invented the old flames, picked up the pieces; or did she give a love another try?
