Will and Emily have no money. Unemployed and deep in debt, the newlywed couple make the desperate decision to sign up for an internet game show called "You Can Bet Your Wife On It." The catch? It's also a wildly popular amateur pornography website.

Every week, three husbands compete in a live streaming trivia contest where the winner is rewarded with fifty-thousand dollars, while the losers must watch as their wives are forced to strip down to nothing and perform audience-voted sexual acts with another man. But for a trivia geek like Will, who regularly knows 95% of the answers, there's no way he could lose. It's easy money with minimal risk for his wife.

That is until Will and Emily arrive on set and discover the game's format has been completely revamped for the current season of the show. Suddenly, their foolproof plan no longer seems foolproof...

This story is 12,700 words and contains graphic language, explicit m/f sexual situations, exhibitionism, cuckolding and reluctance.
