Kat Davidson was a devoted wife and mother of two for sixteen years. That was until the day she walked in on her husband, with another woman. Two years and a divorce later she finds herself being pushed by her sister to get back into the dating game.

After a horrible blind date, widower, Cole Brody, who has always hid behind his wedding ring to keep women at bay, comes to Kat's rescue. The attraction was immediate and mutual.

Things heat up quickly, leading them to the bedroom where Cole shows Kat that she has lived a sheltered, boring, life up to now. When the only man she had ever been with scheduled everything including when they had sex, Kat becomes an eager student with Cole as the teacher. Kat realizes she is falling for Cole, but an ex-husband and a dead wife could stand in their way of happiness.
