Winged and Wild (Who am I?) Moira Butterfield

Opening with a riddle, this book shows different parts of a bird's body such as the eye, then the teeth, the ear, the feet and so on until finally the whole bird is revealed, which in this case is a golden eagle. Accompanying text provides further clues to the bird's identity and gives an insight into its habitat and how it lives. The book concludes with a picture of the bird's young, a map of its home and a fun quiz.
