Take an unhappily married couple with a small baby, man whose wife died in a tragic accident and can't let go, and you have a story of desperation, loneliness, betrayal, and love. When Nicole died, Michael was desperately lonely. Then a year later he spotted Mary, sitting on a park bench with her young son. She was the splitting image of his dead wife. Michael decided there and then he had to have her in his life. The events that followed took Michael, Mary, and her husband John on a journey none of them expected. John's greed changed all their lives forever. Wife for Sale is a story about relationships, marriage and love. It's about how well we know the person next to us and the one we trust the most, and shows that keeping secrets leads to hurting the ones you love and ultimately, destroy ourselves. It is about discovering ourselves after being abandoned, lied to and hurt and teaches us how to find the power to forgive and forget so we can move on.
