You'll Never Interview In This Town Again: Job Hunting in Austin and Living to Tell About It Erin Passons

When Erin Passons, an Austin-based author and technical writer, is laid off from her software company, she immediately jumps into the “get-hired” scene, interviewing at over thirty companies, many of which are touted as “Austin’s Best Places to Work.” Passons tries to keep a (mostly) positive attitude and a (generally-speaking) hopeful heart, but a dozen ping-pong tables and a few thousand mentions of the word “culture” later (and no one born before 1985 in sight), it’s all too clear the hiring practices at Austin’s software companies are as weird as the city itself. “You’ll Never Interview in This Town Again” is Passons’ hilarious, if sometimes gut-wrenching, account of what it’s like to be plucked, pulled, and pried open by Austinilicone Valley, and what it’s like to come out on the other side.
