Harper Quinn has it all, a handsome husband, Brody and three beautiful children. Kara, her college roommate, is her best friend living next door with her husband, Bennett. Together they planned a much needed kid free vacation. On the flight home their plane crashes over the ocean. Harper and Bennett are the sole survivors. Stranded and grieving they only have each other to turn to. Learning to survive and coping with their loss they struggle with their growing feelings for each other. With time passing they begin to doubt they will ever be rescued. What would be the harm if they gave into temptation? What if they were never rescued? What would be waiting for them at home?
